MISUNDERSTANDING IN LANAI SALE

The Ranch Headquarters Portions Were Not Included.

LEASEHOLDS RELEASED IN AUGUST LAST YEAR

BELONGED TO F. H. HAYSELDEN AND WIFE AND SOLD TO JOHN F. COLBURN PRIOR TO THE FORECLOSURE SALE.

It is now stated that Mr. Chas. Gay did not buy all he thought he was buying at the Lanai foreclosure sale last Saturday night. Notwithstanding the host of attorneys in the case, a portion of the property was put up for sale which was not in the power of the court to order sold. This was the personal interest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Hayseiden until recently comprised in two leaseholds of Government land, which prior to the foreclosure sale had been purchased by John F. Colburn.

They are the tracts known as Paomai containing 9,978 acres and Kamaoku containing 8,291 acres, whose leases have yet thirteen and a half years to run. It was supposed by those at the sale who were not in the secret that these leaseholds were included in the property as put up and that the purchaser would secure an undivided two-thirds interest in the whole Gibson ranch.

As a matter of fact, however, these tracts of Paomai and Kamaoku were released from the Kamao mortgage by decree of Judge Humphreys, following a stipulation by the parties in interest, on the 27th of August, 1900. This proceeding was based on the payment of $30,000 of the $100,000 mortgage. How the facts eluded the vigilance of the whole array of legal talent looking after the interests of the first and second mortgagees is considered most remarkable.

What makes the matter one of great importance to Mr. Gay is the fact that the leaseholds in question contain the ranch houses, the sheep pens, wool presses and, indeed, the headquarters equipment of the enterprise generally. Without this portion of the property, the purchaser's two-thirds requirement of what was capable of being sold does not convey the degree of control of the ranch which has been supposed.

In the meantime Mr. Gay has leased from W. G. Irwin a tract of land containing 9,677 acres, on the east side of the island and another containing 19,468 acres on the west side for thirty years, at an annual rental of $4,600 for the 29,000 and odd acres. The Hayseiden leaseholds, comprising over 17,000 acres, pay $500 a year. They are connected by a narrow strip of land running around one end of the western Irwin leasehold which wedges in between them.

NEWLY APPOINTED JUDGE.

Judge Wilcox this morning posted on the blackboard in front of the police station the following notice: "The newly appointed District Magistrate will hold court tomorrow at 9:30 a. m." The words "newly appointed" caused some wonder to all who knew for how long a period Judge Wilcox has presided at the police matinees. The explanation is that the Judge's commission ran out and was renewed yesterday.

The bark R. P. Rithet expects to get away for San Francisco on Saturday or Sunday of this week. She will take a cargo of about 1,000 tons of sugar.

WILD GOOSE CHASE OVER HERRING SCARE

Last Saturday night Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth was started to receive from Manager Low of Honolulu plantation a message stating that C. A. Herring, the man who had trouble with the plantation people some time ago over a piece of land, had shot two Port-Ricens. Immediate assistance was requested.

The deputy started for the scene in a rig, taking with him Officers McDuffie and Renshaw. When he had almost reached the place he met Dr. Cooper who was just returning to Honolulu. The doctor was in no gentle frame of mind and uttered sentiments on people who would call a doctor all the way from town on a wild goose chase. Chillingworth proceeded to Herring's house which he found surrounded by a warlike crowd of men armed with Winchester rifles. Everything had the appearance that a desperate battle was on hand. Notwithstanding the threatening appearance of affairs the deputy entered the house where he found the terrible Herring peacefully eating his supper. He told Herring what the trouble was and Herring quietly submitted to arrest.

The whole affair appears to be an elephant made from a wasp. It seems that the plantation had a house constructed on the piece of land to which Herring claims to have a right. On Saturday evening a gang of Porto Ricans were moving into the house when Herring appeared on the scene and scared the crowd away with a couple of shots. No one was hurt.

Herring was placed under arrest on the charge of carrying a deadly weapon and was brought to the station house.

HOLSTEIN'S OPEN LETTER

To the Managers and Employers Residing in the Second Election District (West Hawaii), Island of Hawaii.

I want each of you to commence educating your Hawaiian laborers as to the disastrous results which will be cast by Hawaiians in case Wilcox's leper bill is passed in Congress. How it will affect your sugar and how it will affect them as laborers. Teach them now. You must do it. Don't wait for one or two to do this work. If you are anxious to see Wilcox defeated, get out and work among your laborers. They will listen to you if you will advise them as to what is proper. Prince Cupid is doing noble work among his people, and you must do your share. Wilcox' majority over Parker last election in the Second District was only 79 votes. We can defeat Wilcox if we will only try, and as your executive, I hope you will heed my advice.

H. L. HOLSTEIN (LINEKONA),
Republican Executive, Second Election District, Island of Hawaii.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT

The Honolulu Bowling Parlor, Metropolitan building, Alakea street, will open the fall season by giving a grand tournament, commencing Monday, September 8, 1902. The following games will be played and a prize for each offered. Five Back Nine Pins and Ten Pins. A championship medal will be given for the highest average all-around player. Entries will close at 9 p. m. September 6. Drawings will take place immediately afterwards. About twenty-five entries have already been received.

The alleys have been put into first-class condition and with the new balls and pins, the public may look for some high scores.

The ping pong tables and courts are being much appreciated. The place is cool and just suited for the game that is being so much played in Honolulu of late.

Last night an attempt to burglarize the curio store on Hotel street, which was partly gutted by fire in the morning, was made, but was frustrated by Officers Hart, McDuffie and Espinda. The officers heard the man moving around inside the store but could not see him on account of the darkness. An attempt was made to catch the intruder but he managed to escape.

Joseph Devlin, M. P., the nationalist leader, now in London, says that during his recent tour of this country with William Redmond they started 185 branches of the Irish Land league and collected $25,000.

Holstein Chairman, Avery Secretary--Platform Committee Named--Senator Burton and John M. Thurston Address the Delegates--Applause for Parker--Smooth Proceedings

The third convention of the Republican party held in these islands as a part of the United States of America, was convened shortly after 10 o'clock this forenoon, the delegates taking their places by districts. There was a very full attendance of delegates, there being but few represented by proxy. The back part of the hall was filled with interested spectators, among whom was Senator Burton of Kansas and Dr. King, his secretary. While the business of the convention was in its early stages, Senator Thurston appeared and was most enthusiastically cheered.

The convention was called to order by A. G. M. Robertson, chairman of the Territorial Central Committee, and after reading the call for the convention, H. L. Holstein was chosen temporary chairman and J. D. Avery temporary secretary. These were later on chosen as permanent officers of the convention.

There was a disposition on the part of the delegates to expedite business so that when the 12 o'clock whistles blew all the preliminary work had been completed, the convention had the pleasure of listening to Senators Burton and Thurston.

A. G. M. Robertson, chairman of the Territorial Central Committee, called the convention to order at 10:20 and at once read the call for the convention. W. J. Coelho, interpreter, read the call in Hawaiian.

Mr. Robertson then, on behalf of the Territorial Central Committee, thanked the gentlemen assembled for their support since the beginning of the organization and expressed a trust that they would turn the organization over to their successors in at least as good a shape as they had received it. The large attendance proved that the Republican party was alive and vigorous throughout the group. As there was much business to be done he would now call for the election of a temporary president.

W. C. Achi proposed H. L. Holstein of the Second District, as a young man of ability.

J. L. Kaulukou seconded the nomination. H. P. Baldwin moved the nominations close, which being seconded by J. Kalino was carried unanimously amidst applause.

J. L. Kaulukou and W. H. Rice were appointed by Chairman Robertson to escort the temporary president to the chair.

Holstein Scores Wilcox.

Mr. Holstein thanked the convention for the honor conferred on him. He believed the Republican party was out to win. The country had experienced two years of Wilcox and his gang and had got its bellyful of them. Wilcox had done nothing for the country at Washington. Perhaps it was partly due to his fancied resemblance to Napoleon. (Laughter.) The main reason, however, was that Wilcox did not belong to either of the two great national parties. Moreover, he had spent much of his time in damning the missionaries, which did us harm because we belonged to the category of missionaries.

He believed the Delegate to Congress would be a Republican. A Home Ruler asked him that morning what the Republicans wanted, and he answered that they wanted a man of ability and brains, a man in sympathy with the party in power, a man who would obtain something for the Territory, as Delegate to Congress. The late Congress appropriated a thousand million dollars, yet not one dollar was voted for Hawaii. No, not a bean except a few packages of seeds Wilcox sent one time.

Party Men and Republicans, Must Represent Hawaiians

SAYS EX-SENATOR THURSTON,

Independents Are Useless in Congress

Hon. John M. Thurston, former United States Senator from Nebraska, was saluted with a volley of applause as he came in view of a sea of faces extending over the entire auditorium of the Orpheum on Saturday evening. Many of the large audience had been foreboded in securing seats from one-half to one whole hour before 8 o'clock. Seats had been reserved in the box and orchestra sections for ladies. Republican convention delegates and public officials until near the time of calling the assembly to order. There was a goodly sprinkling of the fair sex. Lorin Andrews, president of the Young Men's Republican Club whose invitation to deliver an address had been accepted, was early on hand with the assistance of P. R. Helm and Chas. H. Crane to carry out the seating arrangements without confusion.

Sam Parker and Prince David were early present, receiving hearty applause as they entered. Judge Kepoikai and Prince Cupid a little later received a like ovation. Governor and Mrs. Dole were conducted to their seats amidst salvos of hand clapping.

For some time before the orator was introduced, the Ellis quietest club played and sang popular airs.

Among those in the auditorium were the following: Governor S. B. Dole and wife, Mrs. E. P. Dole, Senator A. de S. Canavaro, Portuguese Consul; Mons. Vizzavona, French Consul; Prince David Kawananakoa, Prince Jonah Kaimanulani, Hon. Sam. Parker, Judge A. N. Kepoikai, Jas. H. Boyd, Superintendent of Public Works, and Mrs. Boyd; E. S. Boyd, Commissioner of Lands; Rev. O. H. Gulick, P. C. Jones, Dr. N. B. Emerson, W. R. Castle, W. O. Smith, W. E. Rowell, Judge Arch. Mahaula, W. L. Hopper, C. B. Wilson, D. G. Camarinos, F. J. Testa, Captain Graham (ship Erskine M. Phelps) and wife, G. H. Robertson, W. L. Peterson, F. McIntyre, P. Muhlenford, Dr. M. E. Grossman, C. Kaiser, Theo. Wolf, J. T. McGrohan, Senator Kanuha, John Wise, F. S. Lyman Jr., Judge A. S. Humphreys, J. A. Magoon, C. Hustace Jr., L. L. McDaniels, J. A. Gilman and wife, C. H. Atherton, W. W. Harris, W. C. Wilder, J. A. McKenzie, E. R. Adams and wife, T. McCants

Stewart and wife, Dr. Garvin, F. M. Brooks and wife, J. W. Glavin, W. W. Hall, E. O. White and wife, A. J. Campbell, W. L. Howard, Albert Raas and wife, C. F. Peterson, Dr. Galbraith and wife, E. R. Stackable, Capt. Paul Smith, T. F. Lansing, W. M. Templeton, Dr. Geo. H. Huddy, Dr. Raymond and Dr. Clark.

Shortly after the hour announced for the speech, Senator Thurston was escorted to his seat by Lorin Andrews, chairman of the evening. Later on, Senator Burton and Henry E. Highton arrived and took seats in the first row of chairs on the stage. Among the prominent Republicans on the stage were the following: J. P. Cooke, J. H. Fisher, J. K. Nahale, Chas. Palaa, L. Kalo, Senator Paris, J. Kanakani, E. C. Winston, Senator Achi, R. T. Guard, Geo. W. Paty, A. C. McKenny, A. L. C. Atkinson and Geo. R. Carter.

After a few appropriate introductory remarks by Chairman Andrews, the speaker of the evening was introduced. His remarks were as follows: Ladies and Gentlemen: My Fellow Citizens—I have great pleasure and honor in appearing before you tonight. It was most kind of the Republicans of Honolulu to ask me to be present and speak to you at this meeting. My good friends have rather overdone the advertising business, however, and the press refers to me as an orator. I am not. I have never achieved that great distinction. Whatever reputation I may have earned on the public platform has come to me because I always endeavored to speak to my fellow citizens in the simplest and plainest language, and always endeavored to be fair and just in political matters. All Citizens Equal.

I have no apologies to make for being on your platform here tonight. You and I are citizens of the great Republic to whose destinies we are all thoroughly committed. In its progress and in its civilization and its advancement, its triumphs and achievements, whatever glory it gives to us on the mainland, whatever glory is possible to you in these islands of the Pacific sea, will come through the mission of the great Republic. We are all citizens of a common country, and I have no doubt that although you have only recently become a part of our body politic, that you will grow to love and honor the flag of the Republic as much as those who have lived under it since their birth. To me, fellow citizens, it is a flag for which no man has yet been called upon to apologize.

Flag of Liberty.

Wherever it floats, on land or sea, it floats for the liberties and equalities of all mankind. (Applause.) There is not a star in its azure shield that has ever yet been dimmed by an act of national dishonor. There is not a glorious stripe in all its folds that has not stood and gleamed for the elevation of the human race. (Applause.) You have come under this flag, and it is a change in your political history. Many of you, perhaps, came under it more or less unwillingly; but you have submitted to the inevitable destiny of this great twentieth century. For it is inevitable to the progress of the great nations of the world that weaker peoples, who in the rush and strife of human events may not be able to protect and care for themselves, that they must come under the protection and under the guidance of some one of the great nations of the world. The great powers of the earth are struggling and striving for commercial supremacy. They are engaged in a great battle, no less fierce than the contests that take place between armed hosts of contending peoples, engaged in this great peaceful warfare for business and for commercial supremacy. I say to you that you will live to acknowledge that I am right that it was well for you that one of the great, progressive, liberty-loving nations of the world brought you in and gave you a place in the destinies of the American people. Had it not come as it did, you might have come under the guardianship of some other of the great powers. In some contest for mastery and right, the great empire of Germany might have seen fit to float her flag here, a great, magnificent empire of magnificent men, whose love of liberty and whose progressive spirit would have made the empire of Germany a worthy foster mother for Hawaii. Or, in the course of human events, you might have come under the flag of the great Kingdom of Great Britain, that great kingdom, which in

KAI SAN ATTACKED BY HIS COUNTRYMEN

Last Saturday night a call for the patrol wagon was sent from Palama by Deputy Sheriff Albert McGurn. When the wagon arrived McGurn lead the officers into Desha lane where a Chinaman was found crouching by a fence and groaning badly. He had several large wounds on his head and a cut across his face. His legs were all wet and covered with mud. The injured man was taken to the Queen Hospital in the patrol wagon.

On the way, the Chinaman, who gave his name as Kai San, told the officers that he had been assaulted on a place just back of the Chinese theater on Liliha street, by two other Chinese whose names he gave as Ah Koi and Ah Tun. They had hit him over the head and arm with thick iron rods, but he could not state what the reason was for their attack. He had managed to run away from his assailants by crossing the taro patches which lie between Liliha street and the Asylum road. When he came to Desha lane his strength gave out and he fell to the ground where he was found later on by McGurn.

This morning Kai San was reported to be doing all right at the hospital, his injuries being only external scalp wounds. The police are at present looking for his assailants.

The convention was then declared open for business.

Credentials Committee.

H. P. Baldwin moved that a committee on credentials, composed of one from each district, be appointed by the chair. Geo. R. Carter seconded the motion with the addition that a recess of ten minutes be taken for the committee to prepare its report.

The motion carried after J. D. Avery had been elected as temporary secretary on Mr. Baldwin's nomination. The committee was appointed as follows: George H. Renton, A. C. McKinney, J. K. Nahale, J. N. K. Keola, Joseph Lualaba and W. H. Rice.

After a few minutes in retirement the committee, through the temporary president, requested members to hand in the proxies they held.

Mr. Renton, on the committee's return, presented the following report: Hon. H. L. Holstein, Chairman Republican Territorial Convention:

Sir:—Your committee on credentials have examined the credentials of the delegates to this convention and find the same in order, as per attached list from the Territorial headquarters.

Your committee would also report the following delegates represented by proxies as set forth below:

John K. Kamanoulu, by Jonah Kumanale, D. F. Maydwell, by J. K. Mahale, J. Holland, by A. C. McKinney, R. E. Shellberg, by A. C. McKinney, W. C. Cook, by Philip Peck, R. C. Searle, by H. A. Baldwin, A. D. Smith, by H. P. Baldwin.

We respectfully recommend that the above mentioned delegates-elect be declared duly elected delegates to this convention and the gentlemen holding the proxies herein above mentioned be admitted to the floor of this convention as the regular and qualified proxies of the delegates respectively issuing the same.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

G. F. RENTON,
Chairman.

To the Chairman of the Third Republican Territorial Convention of Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—We hereby certify that official returns of the election of the following named gentlemen have been filed in due form at Republican Territorial headquarters as delegates to the

LANE AND HUDDY WERE ENDORSED

By Republicans of Precincts of Fifth District.

BEAT SENATOR ACHI IN HIS OWN PRECINCT

CHAIRMAN OF EIGHTH LEAVES MEETING AFTER REFUSING TO PUT APPEAL IN CARTER'S PRECINCT.

The precinct clubs of the Fifth District, pursuant to a call by the District Committee, met at their various rallying places last night and carried out the program communicated by the ruling body of the district.

The Seventh was to have come together but, it being found that the meeting was called for a place outside the precinct limits, Judge Wilcox decided on postponement.

In the Ninth, known as Carter's precinct, there was, to say the least, a most peculiar state of affairs. Word was sent out to the Lane-Huddy men by some person that there would be no meeting. Moreover, there was a man stationed at the Maema Church gate to tell all the Lane-Huddy men that there was no meeting.

At about the same time, George R. Carter and a number of men had collected at the Kaulawala school. The Lane-Huddy men had their eyes open, went into the Maema Church and Chairman Neely calling the meeting to order, announced that business would be proceeded with. J. Kalakalela was the choice for the House and Lane and Huddy as first and second choice for the Senate. The endorsement of these two men was unanimous.

The same resolution which will appear later in the story of the Eighth Precinct, was adopted.

In the Tenth Precinct all the candidates talked of were put in nomination and no vote taken for first choice.

The most exciting time was experienced in the Eighth Precinct, which met in the Achi warehouse. There were between fifty and sixty present and the meeting was called to order by Achi, who immediately proceeded to declare the meeting out of order on the ground that there was no authority for him to call it. If he did have, he should have given at least two days' notice.

Someone in the meeting wanted to know why on earth he did not give the notice when he, as chairman of the District Committee and of the executive committee of that body, knew all about the call.

A motion was made to proceed with the business of the meeting, which Achi declared out of order. There was an appeal from this decision, which Achi refused to put. The man who made the appeal then put it himself. It was sustained unanimously and Achi walked out of the room.

Paulo Hokii, vice chairman, and Pat Silva, secretary, refused to take the chair, so Kaneakua was made chairman pro tem and Kauhane, as assistant secretary, attended to the secretary's duties.

The platform as sent out by the District Committee was then adopted, section by section, and without a dissenting voice, and the following resolution
